Citation

H. H. ACHARYA SUSHIL KUMARJI MAHARAJ

This Citation is presented to H. H. Acharya Sushil Kumarji Maharaj who dedicated his life to promote world peace through non-violence, environmental protection, animal rights, and universal brotherhood.

Acharyaji founded a number of spiritual organizations. The prominent ones are: World Fellowship of Religions, The International Mahavir Jain Mission, and The World Jain Congress. He is the founder of World Center of Non-Violence, Honorary President of World Conference of Religions and Peace, and Director of Temple of Understanding in New York. Acharyaji took renunciation at the age of 15 and became a monk.

In presenting this Citation I, Gerald McCann, Mayor of the City of Jersey City do hereby salute and honor H. H. Acharya Sushil Kumarji Maharaj as Ambassador of World Peace. He is pursuing his goal of working at Siddhachalam to establish a Ahimsa (Non-Violence) University affiliated with the peace University in Costa Rica, established by the U.N. for a perfect place of learning, worshipping, meditation and peace and harmony.
